Choosing the correct sentence MCQ Question Answer

Visit https://competitive-exam.in for more MCQ

Question: 1. If he was to decide to go to college, one would ommend that he plan to go to × 42, Ahmedabad.

Option A. If he was to decide to go to college, one would 1 recommend that he plan to go to: × 42, Ahmedabad.
Option B. If he were to decide to go to college, opej would recommend that he plan to go to × 42, Ahmedabad.
Option C. Had he decided to go to college, one would recommend that plan to go to × 42, Ahmedabad.
Option D. In the event that he decides to go to college one would recommend that plan to go to × 42, Ahmedabad.

Question: 2. Except for you and I, everyone brought a present for the little birthday girl.

Option A. Except for him and I, everyone brought a present for the little birthday girl
Option B. With the exception of you and I, everyone brought a present for the little birthday girl
Option C. Except for you and I, everyone had brought a present for the little birthday girl
Option D. Except for you and me, everyone brought present for the little birthday girl Question: 3. When one reads the Hindi literature of the twentieth century, you find a striking contrast between the writings of Munshi Premchand and later day writers of popular Hindi fiction.

Option A. When one reads the Hindi literature of the twentieth century, you find a striking contrast between the writings of Munshi Premchand and later day writers of popular Hindi fiction.
Option B. When you read the Hindi literature of the twentieth century, one finds a striking contrast between the writings of Munshi Premchand and later day writers of popular Hindi fiction.
Option C. When one reads the Hindi literature of the twentieth century, he finds a striking contrast between the writings of Munshi Premchand and later day writers of popular Hindi fiction.
Option D. If one reads the Hindi literature of the twentieth century, you find a striking contrast between the writings of Munshi Premchand and later day writers of popular Hindi fiction.

Question: 4. Because of his tennis elbow injury, Pete Sampras has not and possibly never will be able to pick up the bat again.

Option A. Because of his tennis elbow injury, Pete Sampras has not and possibly never will be able to pick up the bat again.
Option B. Because of his tennis elbow injury, Pete Sampras has not and possibly will never be able to pick up the bat again.
Option C. Because of his tennis elbow injury, Pete Sampras has not been and possible never would be able to pick up the bat again.
Option D. Because of his tennis elbow injury, Pete Sampras has not been able to and possibly never will be able to pick up the bat again.

Question: 5. Had he realised how close he was to failing, he would not have gone to the party.

Option A. Had he realised how close he was to failing, he would not have gone to the party.
Option B. If he would have realised how close he was to failing, he would not have gone to the party.
Option C. Had he had realised how close he was to failing, he would not have gone to the party.
Option D. When he realized how close he was to failing, he did not go to the party.

Question: 6. The Indian cricket teams winning its first game of the 2007 World Cup excited the fans of the team.

Option A. The Indian cricket teams winning its first game of the 2007 World Cup excited the fans of the team.
Option B. The Indian cricket team having won its first game of the 2007 World Cup, excited the fans of the team.
Option C. The Indian cricket teams having won its first game of the 2007 World Cup excited the fans of the team.
Option D. The Indian cricket teams winning its first game of the 2007 World Cup excited the fans of the team.

Question: 7. Having bowed our heads, the priest in the temple led us in prayer.

Option A. Having bowed our heads, the priest in the temple led us in prayer.
Option B. After we bowed our heads, the priest in the temple led us in prayer.
Option C. After we had bowed our heads, the priest in the temple led us in prayer.
Option D. After having bowed our head, the priest in the temple led us in prayer.

Question: 8. Being a realist, the detective could not accept the statement of the accused that UFOs had caused the disturbance,

Option A. Being a realist, the detective could not accept the statement of the accused that UFOs had caused the disturbance.Practice Exercise
Option B. Since he was a realist, the detective could not accept the statement of the accused that UFOs had caused the disturbance.
Option C. Being that he was a realist, the detective could not accept the statement of the accused that UFOs had caused the disturbance.
Option D. Realist that he was, the detective could not accept the statement of the accused that UFOs had caused the disturbance.

Question: 9. The shopkeeper hadnt hardly any of those kind of goods.

Option A. The shopkeeper hadnt hardly any of those kind of goods.
Option B. The shopkeeper hadnt hardly any of those kinds of goods.
Option C. The shopkeeper had hardly any of those kind of goods.
Option D. The shopkeeper had hardly any of those kinds of goods.

Question: 10. If we cooperate together by dividing up the booty, we shall be able to work together smoothly in the future.

Option A. If we cooperate together by dividing up the booty, we shall be able to work together smoothly in the future.

Option B. If we cooperate by dividing up the booty, we shall be able to work together smoothly in the future.
Option C. If we cooperate by dividing up the booty together, we shall be able to work together smoothly in the future.
Option D. If we cooperate with each other by dividing the booty, we shall be able to work together smoothly in the future.

Question: 11. The process by which the community influences the actions of its members is known as social control

Option A. The process by which the community influences the actions of its members is known social control.
Option B. The process by which the community influence the actions of its members is known as social control.
Option C. The process by which the community goes about influencing the actions of its members is known as social control.
Option D. The process by which the community influences the actions of its members is known as social control.

Question: 12. Sherry, a little girl with little talent for cooking, enjoys preparing Fried Rice.

Option A. Sherry, a little girl with little talent for cooking, enjoys preparing Fried Rice.
Option B. Sherry, is a little girl who has little talent for cooking but she enjoys preparing Fried Rice.
Option C. Sherry, a little girl who has little cooking talent, enjoys preparing Fried Rice.
Option D. Sherry, a girl with little talent for cooking, enjoys preparing Fried Rice.

Question: 13. Of all the persons I have ever met, Arjit is the most remarkable person.

Option A. Of all the persons I have ever met, Arjit is the most remarkable person.
Option B. Arjit is the most remarkable person of all the persons I have ever met.
Option C. Of all the persons I have ever met, Arjit is the most remarkable person.
Option D. Of all the persons I have ever met, Arjit is the most remarkable.

Question: 14. Using it wisely, leisure promotes health, long life, efficiency, and happiness.

Option A. Using it wisely, leisure promotes health, long life, efficiency, and happiness.
Option B. If used wisely, leisure promotes health, long life, efficiency, and happiness.
Option C. Having used it wisely, leisure promotes health, long life, efficiency, and happiness.
Option D. If it is used wisely, leisure promotes health, long life, efficiency, and happiness.

Question: 15. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. In the course of there journey, they were able to absolve a lot of local cultures
Option B. In the coarse of their journey, they were able to absorb a lot of local culture
Option C. In the course of their journey, they were able to observe a lot of local cultures
Option D. In the course of their journey, they were able to observe a lot of the local culture

Question: 16. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. Your advise does not seem to have had any effect
Option B. Your advice do not seems to have had any effect
Option C. Your advice do not seem to have had any effect
Option D. Your advise does not seem to have had any effects

Question: 17. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. Ever since the sting operation, there has been much opposition from they who maintain that it had been an unathorised act.
Option B. ever since the sting operation, there has been much opposition from they who maintain that it was an unauthorised act.
Option C. Ever since the sting operation, there has been much opposition from they who maintain that it was an unauthorised act.
Option D. Ever since the sting operation , there has been much opposition from those maintaining that it was an unauthorised act.

Question: 18. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. Are these gloves belonging to you? she asked.
Option B. Does this gloves belong to you? she asked.
Option C. Do these gloves belongs to you? she asked.
Option D. Do these gloves belong to you? she aksed.

Question: 19. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. I live in a house in a street in the countryside. The street is called Bear Street and the house is old-more than 100 years old!
Option B. I live in the house in the street in the countryside. The street is called Bear Street and the house is old-more than 100 years old!
Option C. I live in a house in the street in the countryside. The street is called Bear Street and the house is old - more than 100 years old!
Option D. I live in a house in a street in the countryside. The street is called Bear Street and a house is old - more than 100 years old!

Question: 20. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. The teachers will be able to visit our schools and compare our teaching methods to their own.
Option B. The teacher will be able to pay a visit to our schools and compare teaching methods for their own.
Option C. The teachers will be able to visit our schools and compare our teaching methods with their own.

Option D. The teachers will be able to visit our and compare their teaching method with their own.

Question: 21. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. Could you give me the amount that you filled out in the check which was sent?
Option B. Could you give me the amount what you filled out in the check you sent?
Option C. Could you give me the amount for which you filled out in the check you sent?
Option D. Could you give me the amount wherein you filled out in the check you sent?

Question: 22. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. I have completed the work yesterday.
Option B. I did completed the work yesterday.
Option C. I have had completed the work yesterday.
Option D. I completed the work yesterday.

Question: 23. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. For the first time in our history, the new millionaires are looked up with pride and even reverence for they are a new meritocracy who are creating value by innovating in the global knowledge economy.
Option B. For the first time in our history, the new millionaires are looked on with pride and even reverence for they are a new meritocracy who are creating values by innovating in the global knowledge economy.
Option C. For the first time in our history, the new millionaires are looked up to with pride and even reverence for they are a new meritocracy who are creating value by innovating in the global knowledge economy.
Option D. For the first time in our history, the new millionaires are looked up with pride and even reverence for they are a new meritocracy who are creating values by innovating in the global knowledge economy.

Question: 24. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. Business is changing so rapidly that those who can foresee the changing needs of the market will not only become rich but also create millions of jobs and transform our poor hierarchical society.
Option B. Business is changing so rapidly that not only those who can foresee the changing needs of the market will become rich but also create millions of jobs and transform our poor, hierarchical society.
Option C. Business is changing so rapidly that those who can foresee not only the changing needs of the market will become rich but also create million of jobs and transform our poor, hierarchical society.
Option D. Not only is business changing rapidly that those who can foresee the changing needs of the market will became rich but also create millions of jobs and transform our poor, hierarchical society.

Question: 25. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. According to a new research from the University of Exeter, England, women being on top of the ladder are promoted into risky and precarious leadership positions where the chances of failures is high.
Option B. According to new research from the University of Exeter, England, women are being promoted at the top of the ladder into risky and precarious leadership positions where the chance of failure is high.
Option C. According to a new research from the University of Exeter, England, women at the top of the ladder are being promoted into risky and precarious leadership positions where the chance of failure is high.
Option D. Women at the top of the ladder are being promoted for risky and precarious leadership positions where the chance of failures is high, according to a new research from the University of Exeter, England.

Question: 26. In the following questions, only one statement is grammatically correct. Identify the correct one.

Option A. She was one of the first authors to point at the importance of womens subsistence activities particularly in rural areas in predominantly agricultural countries, and the underestimation of such activities in the conventional method of national income accounting.
Option B. She was one of the first authors to point out the importance of womens subsistence activities particularly in rural areas in predominantly agricultural countries, and such underestimation of activities in the conventional method of national income accounting.
Option C. She was one of the first authors to point at the importance of womens subsistence activities, particularly in rural areas in predominantly agricultural countries, and such underestimation of activities in the conventional method of national income accounting.
Option D. She was one of the first authors to point out the importance of womens subsistence activities in predominantly agricultural countries, and the underestimation of such activities in the conventional methods of national income accounting.

Question: 27. In the following questions, four different ways of writing a sentence are indicated. Choose the best way of writing the sentence.
A. The main problem with the notion of price discrimination is that it is not always a bad thing, but that it is the monopolist who has the power to decide who is charged what price.
B. The main problem with the notion of price discrimination is not that it is always a bad thing, it is the monopolist who has the power to decide who is charged what price.
C. The main problem with the notion of price discrimination is not that it is always a bad thing, but that it is the monopolist who has the power to decide who is charged what price.
D. The main problem with the notion of price discrimination is not it is always a bad thing, but that it is the monopolist who has the power to decide who is charged what price.

Option A. A
Option B. B
Option C. C

Option D. D

Question: 28. In the following questions, four different ways of writing a sentence are indicated. Choose the best way of writing the sentence.
A. A symbiotic relationship develops among the contractors, bureaucracy and the politicians, and by a large number of devices costs are artificially escalated and black money is generated by underhand deals.
B. A symbiotic relationship develops among contractors, bureaucracy and politicians, and costs are artificially escalated with a large number of devices and black money is generated through underhand deals.
C. A symbiotic relationship develops among contractors, bureaucracy and the politicians, and by a large number of devices costs are artificially escalated and black money is generated on underhand deals.
D. A symbiotic relationship develops among the contractors, bureaucracy and politicians, and by large number of devices costs are artificially escalated and black money is generated by underhand deals.

Option A. A
Option B. B
Option C. C
Option D. D

Question: 29. 0.In the following questions, four different ways of writing a sentence are indicated. Choose the best way of writing the sentence.
A. The distinctive feature of tariffs and export subsidies is that they create difference of prices at which goods are traded on the world market and their price within a local market.
B. The distinctive feature of tariffs and export subsidies is that they create a difference of prices at which goods are traded with the world market and their prices in the local market.
C. The distinctive feature of tariffs and export subsidies is that they create a difference between prices at which goods are traded on the world market and their prices within a local market.
D. The distinctive feature of tariffs and export subsidies is that they create a difference across prices at which goods are traded with the world market and their prices within a local market.

Option A. A
Option B. B
Option C. C
Option D. D

Question: 30. In the following questions, four different ways of writing a sentence are indicated. Choose the best way of writing the sentence.
A. Any action of government to reduce the systemic risk inherent in financial markets will also reduce the risks that private operators perceive and thereby encourage excessive hedging.
B. Any action by government to reduce the systemic risk inherent in financial markets will also reduce the risks that private operators perceive and thereby encourage excessive gambling.
C. Any action by government to reduce the systemic risk inherent due to financial markets will also reduce the risks that private operators perceive and thereby encourages excessive hedging.
D. Any action of government to reduce the systemic risk inherent in financial markets will also reduce the risks that private operators perceive and thereby encourages excessive gambling.

Option A. A

Option B. B

Option C. C

Option D. D

Answer Sheet

1	B	is the best way of expressing the idea.
2	D	The correct answer corrects the incorrect use of I in the other sentences.
3	C	The improper use of the pronouns one and you is corrected in Choice (c).
4	D	The omission of the past participle been is corrected in Choice (d).
5	A	There is no error in the original sentence.
6	D	The correct pronoun is its.
7	D	Having bowed our heads is a dangling modifier. Option (d) is the best way of rephrasing it.
8	A	There is no error in the original sentence.
9	D	This corrects the double negative (hadnt hardly) and also uses those with kinds correctly.
10	D	Both together and up are unnecessary since their2meaning is included in the words cooperate and divide.
11	B	This question tests the agreement between subject and verb and pronoun and antecedent are both involved. Community (singular) needs a singular verb, influences. Also, the pronoun which refers to community should be singular (its). Choice (b) is best.
12	A	No error. Option (d) is also correct grammatically, but it changes the message.
13	D	The other options repeat the word person unnecessarily.
14	B	One way of correcting a dangling participle is to change the participial phrase to a clause. Choices (b) and (d) substitute clauses for the phrase. However, choice (d) changes the meaning of the sentence.
15	D	Option (a) is clearly wrong (their, rather there); (b) Course; (c) Cultures;
16	D	Advise is verb and advice is noun., so (a) and (d) are ruled out. (c) is ruled out because of do not seem.
17	C	Replace they with those.
18	D	Option (a) is not right grammatically as use of 'belonging' keeps sentence incomplete without a proper helping verb.In option (b) 'does' with 'you' is not right. In option (c), 'belongs' for 'gloves' is not right. As gloves takes plural verb. In option (d), 'do' with 'you' and 'belong' for 'gloves' is grammatically right.

19	A	In option (b) article 'the' before 'house' and 'street' is not right. As it does not make the house a specific object associated with 'I'. In option (c) again article 'the' is wrongly placed. In option (d) 'a' used before 'house' introduces new house which is not related to person in sentence but second part of sentence only tells the quality of the house mentioned earlier. Option (a) is correct.
20	C	In option (b), use of 'pay a visit' for teachers is not right. In option (a), 'compare with' is better than 'compare to' for methods. 'Compare to' is used for persons. Option (d) does an illogical comparison of same methods of teachings of visiting teachers.
21	A	Option (b) and (d) puts a question in question and it seems that amount of cheque is not known to sender as well. In option (c), use of the 'which' is not correct for amount of payment. Option (a) is grammatically correct.
22	D	The work was done previous day. So, simple past tense should be used as used for something done in past. So option (d) is correct. Other options are incorrect.
23	C	The phrase look up means to become better (e.g., the economy in looking up) whereas look up to means admire or respect and look on means watch. Since the sentence says pride and even reverence, look up to is the right phrase. Further value means how much something is worth whereas values means beliefs about what is right or wrong and what is important in life. In the context of innovating in the global knowledge economy the right word is value not values.
24	A	In this question the position of not only has been changed. The correlative conjunction not only ... but also is placed immediately before the two things joined. Here the two things are becoming rich and creating millions of jobs. Choice (a) alone conveys this idea. Choice (b) leads us to believe not only those ... but also some others. Choice (c) implies different aspects of the market and choice (d) implies something else is changing along with business.
25	C	In the second part of the sentence, since the verb is is the subject is the chance of failure not the chances of failures (rules not a and d). The word promoted is followed by to or into not at (rules at b)
26	D	The phrase point out means to mention something in order to make others notice whereas point at is to point with your finger. The former meaning is intended in the context. Similarly, such underestimation is wrong because no underestimation has been mentioned.
27	C	is correct because it rightly states that exercising any other option will cause failure.
28	A	is the best option and cant be changed with any other options given there as it explains fully the problem of the narrator.
29	A	is correct answer. It most suitably answers the question of the author.
30	B	is the answer as realistic details combined with romantic temperament can makeup a good novel.